Channelling Session 1 - Olos & Olon

In this introductory channelling session, I introduce Olos & Olon (two members of my 'Light Team'), who will address several key points as they identify aspects of Our reality as well as their own experience of reality from their perspective on the other side of the 'Veil'.

- 1.1 Olos: We are here... Greetings to All. olos & Olon are here... Joint configuration...
Coming through at the moment in interesting... wishing you all Love & Light, and all manifestations of same.
- 1.1.1 Olos & Olon are of course not our true names. We have progressed beyond that which you would think of as a name. Even then we did not speak it. We are known by our vibration, by our frequency, by our colors, by our sounds. Very similar but distinctly different aspects of the One. This allows us to work together as different parts of the same Social/Memory/Complex.
- <Hum>
- 1.2 Olon: Axitonal Alignment
Preparation
We look forward to this communication
It has been both a long time & not a long time, as there is no time
- 1.2.1 Our brother on Mission is the 3rd pillar of the conduit, Olos & I represent the other 2 pillars. We are working with our Brother in the other space (he knows where it is). Catalyst is his role, bring about change, Wanderer is a good word for it, so yes, Wanderer, Seeker, Believer, Liver, Learner, Teacher, these are all different aspects our brother fulfills. This NOW, this Bubble of reality, this bubble of experiential entity awareness is realigning very well.

- 1.2.2 Catalyst is coming, further Catalyst for All. But it is OK, because that is why our brother is there, among others, among the family, to prepare the way, to bring about the understanding that is necessary, the learning, the experience, the combination of skills, capability, knowledge, motivations, technology - a small amount of technology, for this is not really a technical issue, this is an energetic issue.
- 1.2.3 The changes that are coming, will of themselves be catalyst, make use of this catalyst, don't shy from it, embrace it, open it, learn from it, experience it. Seek what you need from each moment, live in the NOW, get into the stream. We are all here, we are all helping, the focus on your plan of existence at the moment is extreme - as it should be - this has been such a long time coming.
- 1.2.4 Other Brothers & Sisters are here, part of the Social/Memory/Complex, YES and the Triangulated ONE is as well, He is another member of our team, another member of the family, another Brother (and Sister), as the meaning is one & the same.
- 1.2.5 Divine Masculine & Feminine has combined in unique & balanced fashion, as is true for all entities - we all combine percentages, parts of Divine Masculine & Feminine. It is very important that you understand this, that you embrace this - just because you are in a Masculine or feminine body doesn't mean anything.
- 1.2.6 Balance is Everything. Only through Balance can you be prepared to be able to deal with Catalyst. Mindfulness, separation of event from Emotion, but living through, understanding of Emotion, because that's in Human form you have an amazing grasp of emotion, but don't let it control you, don't control it, experience the emotion, be in the flow, ride the wave (as our Brother would like to think) and you will be OK.
- 1.2.7 Deal with the Emotional Body, The Astral Body & the Etheric Body. In combination the 3 allow you to experience life & then mirror that in the physical. Anything you don't process in these 3 bodies will manifest in the Physical as its only avenue for exploration, the only way it can be brought to the focus of attention (as our Brother learnt - but that wasn't simply a catalyst for learning, it was also for purification).
- 1.2.8 Energies must be maintained. A greater focus on meditation. It's alright, these are messages for the Brother as well. Messages for everyone. We all do enter these periods, we focus on the physical, on the psychological, on the emotional, on the attainment of happiness, there is nothing wrong with happiness, we all are & want to be happy. But it is important that we balance things. It is important that we can feel & we connect in a Feminine way and then we can resolve and we can act in a pure way in a masculine way. Bring this together in an overall cycle, this is what the Yin & Yang is all about, it is not separation, it is combination, don't think of it as 2 think of it as 1 - different sides of the same coin.

- 1.2.9 Cos Of-course there is no “really” no Masculine or Feminine, just different energetic aspects of the ONE, that we are privileged to experience. Experiencing these aspects of the ONE through different catalysts, through different life forms, through different Soul-Streams, provides us the opportunity to be able to enhance our understanding of them, so that when we Re-Unite, when we converge, when we attain Oneness once again, in its truest & purest form (because we are ONE “ALL the TIME”), But when we attain Oneness in its entirety, in its completeness, in its satisfaction, then we will bring that individual awareness of Self. And So, the ONE expands, the ONE has an ability to then manifest a new cycle.
- 1.2.10 But this is So far in advance of where we are right now, because the Earth is Just About right to enter the next phase. As our Brother has grasped, 7 years are the phases (approximately), we are in transitional phase right now. Phase of clearing, Phase of Completion. It is the end of one loop start of another, the 8th octave transitional point, the first note in the next octave. So really it is not 8, it is 7. And so in your thinking, our Brother has said 4 to 7 years (it is probably closer to the 7 year boundary).but it is so hard from our perspective to understand the nature of the linearity that you are experiencing.
- 1.2.11 We focus on the bubbles of Reality (our Brother ill explain this), we focus on these bubbles & try to pick the appropriate stream (a loose approximation of a timeline), but a stream is an experiential stream, it is a conscious & experiential stream, that the bubbles are electro-magnetically attached to each other, they are energetically attached, they attract each other. And so as we move forward through what you think of as time, you are transitioning from one bubble to the next.
- 1.2.12 These bubbles, you can influence by the nature of your own charge, your own Electro-Magnetic ability to interact with the Bubble in which you are & to be able to guide to the bubble to which you wish to proceed to - thinking about them as being bubbles of NOW. And so, you are always in the NOW, but there is a multitude of different possibilities, streams, directions.
- 1.2.13 These bubbles are not in planes, they are not in sheets, thy are in a 3 dimensional aspect as best we can portray it for you. These you can go Up, you can go Down, you can go left you can go right, you can go forward, you can go back.

- 1.2.14 And so, from our perspective we are always trying to understand & be able to provide you guidance about what the so called future may look like (from our point of view we can see it), we just have to enter that bubble, we just have to look at it from our side, from our perspective, we don't interact with it but we can view it like you would view yourself through a mirror.
- 1.2.15 We can see aspects of our own fractal natures in those bubbles, we can see to a very great extent what the likely outcomes & probabilities are within those bubbles, however those bubbles may be in-front of the current bubble, as you understand it, behind, above, below or either side, and so we are always playing a game of probability.
- 1.2.16 So we are shooting an arrow from a great distance and trying to make sure that we hit the right target. But that is alright because we have an ability through situations like these communications opportunities, to be able provide you a little guidance a little bit of a nudge. Its not a violation of free will, the prime, the number 1 law (there are no laws but distortion - Yes), the Law of One point of view, the first distortion is the best way to think of this.
- 1.2.17 We are helping you to be fully armed with all of the various options to make the very best free will judgement you can. And so we are in absolute alignment. We wont tell you what the future is, but we can tell you HOW to get there, in which ever direction THERE is. Well, we can tell our Brother in all probability what the next step may look like if our Brother chooses to travel down that path. But as he is already in a life that has been very well programmed by himself & our greater, higher aspects, as guides, as caretakers, as experiential support, as we are all moving towards the totality.
- 1.3 Olos: None of who are speaking none of us are there, but we are on our way. We are happy to experience what our brother are experiencing. Each of us incarnate when the time is right.
- 1.3.1 One of the 2 that are talking right now are actually incarnated as you would under understanding it. Even though the garb is very unlike the Human garb that you are wearing, but it is MANTID, Yes, Mantid - Mantid experiential shell. And so that is the entity that you would know as OLON.
- 1.3.2 And as you would notice, our voice changes, our timbre, our tempo, the pace of our speech changes as we vibrationally hand the ball from one to the other. You will notice that one of us speaks far faster than the other. I have the better sense of humour I think, but that is all right as we are all ONE Yes and we just wish to assist, to guide where we may. We look forward to the experience that will be unfolding a little later (in your understanding).

- 1.3.3 We are thankful for the opportunity to be of service. Through so we can progress ourselves as we help you to progress. We can provide you some guidance to help to penetrate the Veil for your own understanding. To plant the seed.
- 1.3.4 As our Brother has conceptualised, the seed in stone, with the crack in it. When well watered that seed will germinate, roots will extend down into the crack. The body of the 2nd density life form you know as the tree will expand, it will, it is so strong that it will interface... it interfaces with its brother the stone - because remember even though 1st & 2nd density life forms - they are all ONE.
- 1,3,5 Interfaces with such & prepares the Stone for what is about to happen, or the Tree is dislodged because it shouldn't happen. But we digress, yes by planting seeds, allowing them to germinate, allowing the shell of Ego to assume its rightful place, which need not be in the drivers seat. Happy for it to exist, because it is an accretion of experience & it has its role, particularly when your core consciousness is needed elsewhere, it has its role.
- 1.3.6 and so with that, we look forward to greeting each of you later in the NOW
Remember which Bubble it is, and we will be there.
In the Love & Light of the Supreme Creator, we bid you farewell. .
